Expository Dictionary of New Testament Words was written by William Edwy Vine and published as a four volume set in 1940. In common usage, the title is often shortened to Vine's Expository Dictionary, or simply Vine's. It is a cross-reference from key English words in the Authorized King James Version to the original words in the Greek texts of the New Testament. Vine's Expository Dictionary - Wikipedia Vine did not write an equivalent work for Old Testament Hebrew words; however, Vine's work is sometimes combined with another author's Hebrew dictionary and marketed under Vine's name as a "complete" expository dictionary. It provides a concise meaning of the original Greek word, often providing Bible verse references as examples. Vine's Expository Dictionary - Apps on Google Play Vines Complete Expository Dictionary.
