God is the centre and that God is th, e source of all reality. And what we discover, from our own experience, is that there is nothing real outside God, only illusion. In meditation we find the courage to live , in the clear light of reality: the reality that is God; the reality that is his creation; the reality that is my being, created by God. The Reality of God - WCCM The Bible speaks of God as real, as real as anything else in existence. In the system of Ordergonics, God is indeed real, as real as anything else in existence. There is only one reality, and that reality includes

"nature." God is not a part of "nature" but he is real, the creator of nature, who acts in nature as he acts also in human life.

REALITY OF GODThe series published as The Reality of God brings together the lectures which would have been given by Baron Friedrich von Hügel between 1924 and 1926, aptly summarized by the complete title "Concerning the Reality of Finites and the Reality of God: a Study of their Inter-relations and their Effects and Requirements within the Human Mind." Ill health, however, prevented von Hügel from holding the lectures.

 The truth being the ultimate reality (= Reality of God), in truth there are no lies and in God there is no evil. Using logic is logical, but we must first know the premises. We must follow the logic, it means following God. Any idea of God that is not God, is a violation to logic.

Do Evil And Suffering Disprove the Existence of God?
 Steven Hemler's work on attempting to scientifically verifying the reality of God is deeply researched and clearly explained in a non-religious manner. His references are easily validated and come from the physical, biological, and behavioral sciences as he develops the logic to conclude the existence of God.

 The psalmist captured this reality in the 16th Psalm as he writes of the faithfulness and assurance that can only be found in God. I have set the LORD always before me. The focus of the psalmist is Jehovah God—the Existing One—who is the source of his confidence. Jehovah has always been and will always be.

 The Divine Reality is a valuable contribution to the ongoing exchange between Muslims and atheists. Those interested in the field will benefit from the accessible way Hamza Tzortzis infuses both God and godliness into the conversation, all the while courageously willing to tackle the philosophical issues head on and in an interesting way.
