When it comes to the goriest of the crimes, the offenders often mess the evidence and fabricate a false diversion to mislead the investigators. As a consequence, many investigators get themselves entrapped into the deception and choose to close these cases presumptuously with the planted evidence that meets their eye. This act of jumping into conclusions, is usually due to their attention being in demand all the time by the ever-rising number of crimes and also they themselves not having enough competency and inclination to dig into the bottom of the case and unearth the truth. But, I, Thilak Ratnagar, have never addressed a case as presented- cause there is always more than what meets the eye! On a day that started casually, all it took was a single call from the Commissioner asking me to investigate a dead body in a Lake to turn my world upside down. What seemed like a suicide dragged me into a black hole of multiple high-profile murders, a personal involvement, and a national threat. Join me on a 50-hour journey into a topsy-turvy ride full of thrills, twists, turns, multiple face-offs with death in unwinding a treacherous plan to break the nuclear backbone of India.

IN THE GAME OF LOVE WINNING OR LOSING COULD MEAN ALL THE SAME. Meghna is a final year Commerce student. She is a huge cricket buff, but even more importantly is a crazy fan of Rishit, the cricket star, who almost every girl has a huge crush on. Meeting him was a chance, but what happens ahead is absolute destiny. When you no longer hold the strings to what is happening to you, you can only wait and watch fate play its part, turning the things around you in the most unexpected manner. Meghna said nothing when Rishit (the guy who monopolized her dreams) entered her world; it was all written. She learnt that there was a world where people were empowered by the Energies of the 5 elements and that each person in that world had a human copy, a look alike. So when Rishit's copy dissolves (dies) his energies erroneously get transferred to Rishit. When Rishit wakes up to this other world, the first person he happens to meet is Meghna's copy. This creates a weird bonding between Meghna and Rishit in the human world. Meghna is on the worst kind of a bilateral road. She wants Rishit to be safe, get him out of this mess, but she also knows that the moment he does, the weird bonding that holds her only hope of a relationship with Rishit would no longer exist. What should she hope for? When someone you love, loves you because you are bonded by a mixed fate...do you hate or love such an inevitable bond?"

For a nation that has one of the highest growth rates in the world, India is plagued by poverty and corruption. Sixty years after Independence, India accounts for around 36 per cent of the world's poor. The deepening fault lines between the haves and the have-nots have given rise to skewed development and widespread discontent. William Nanda Bissell, managing director of the successful Fabindia chain, believes India's poverty is a direct result of its poor management by ruling elites who have mastered the art of winning elections but have no interest in the deeper issues of governance. He argues that economic development that consumes large amounts of natural resources and generates enormous pollution is not a luxury available to countries that are beginning their development now. Instead, he proposes a radical new paradigm for development that delinks consumption from quality of life while strengthening the natural environment in the process. The central themes of Making India Work echo the ideas and beliefs that underpin the Constitution of India; but they venture beyond the hackneyed phrases of development to focus on strategies which can, Bissell believes, end poverty in India in five years. Hard-hitting and provocative, this book is a result of Bissell's journeys across rural and urban India, offering unique solutions to the challenges confronting its people.

'Janey is like a whirlwind of selflessness. A beautiful spirit in a beautiful country doing a beautiful thing. I encourage my children to be more 'Janey'. With more positive spirits like Janey, the world would be a better place.' - Ben Fogle In 2014 and in her mid-twenties, Janey Lowes had been a vet for just two years when she left her home in County Durham and went travelling. Visiting Sri Lanka, she was horrified to see the state of so many of the island's dogs, in particular the three million strays. Over 5,000 miles from home, Janey decided there and then that she was going to move to the island indefinitely and do everything within her power to help them. She raised £10,000 to get started, setting up a charity called WECare Worldwide, and began work. Frightened, determined and excited all at the same time, she found a local who was willing to work with her and began scouring the streets for dogs in need. Some she patched up as best she could at the roadside, others she brought back and treated in a make-shift surgery she had cobbled together in her new home. With very little equipment, she and her small team came up with new and ingenious ways to treat the animals. In this highly inspiring and heartfelt book full of challenges and adventure, Janey introduces us to her world and the tireless work she carries out. As she says, 'I feel as though all these dogs are my dogs and I have a responsibility to them.' In it, we meet many of the colourful characters who have come to offer help, along with innumerable street dogs who have suffered all sorts of trauma and injury, only to be scooped up by Janey and her team and saved.
