Car Design Asia is the third volume in a series on automotive history. Learn how this continent rose to the top in car manufacturing. Starting with Japan in the 1950s, and in later decades Korea and China, Asian automotive technology has gradually become a presence to be reckoned with on the international stage. Initially a smaller player compared to Europe and the United States, Asia's automobile industry has consistently grown to its current status as one of the most dynamic global forces in terms of form and function. At the forefront of both technology and design, Asian cars include some of the most commercially successful automobiles ever built.

Annual Report Veloce Publishing Ltd
À quarante-deux ans, Luc Alphand est un sportif hors pair... Ancien champion de ski, champion de course automobile, il a réussi l'exploit d'exceller dans ces deux disciplines. Et pourtant, ses débuts n'ont pas été des plus faciles. Loin de là ! Champion du monde junior de descente en 1983, Lucho, alias Wild Dog ou le Chat Noir, dut attendre plus de dix ans avant de remporter sa première vraie victoire en Coupe du monde de ski. Un soulagement et une joie énorme pour ce montagnard pur jus, après de longues années entachées par les blessures, les doutes, les sacrifices, les galères et les sarcasmes... Avec Luc, c'est tout le ski français qui relève la tête. Finies la génération maudite, l'absence de médailles. 1997 signe l'année de la consécration : le Haut Alpin est le premier Français depuis Jean-Claude Killy en 1969, à remporter le classement général de la Coupe du monde. Lorsqu'il décide de raccrocher, au sommet de sa carrière, c'est la consternation.

Heureusement, Luc n'a pas fini de nous faire rêver... En 1998, il prend pour la première fois de sa vie le départ du Paris-Dakar. C'est le début d'une nouvelle aventure sur quatre roues. Doté d'un caractère bien trempé qui fait la marque des grands champions, il s'impose en quelques années comme un pilote professionnel de tout premier plan. En 2006, il remporte le plus célèbre rallye raid du monde, le mythique Dakar. Le voici pour la deuxième fois de sa vie au sommet de la hiérarchie mondiale. Derrière la carrière sportive au palmarès impressionnant, Luc se révèle également un homme attachant. Ce bon vivant, marié et père de trois enfants, est aussi un homme de conviction.

Despite the recent expansion of higher education in Uganda, there is still much cause for concern. Enrolment levels lag behind those of much of the rest of the continent; enrolment in technical universities in only one percent; there is no government science and technology policy for high education despite an identified social need; the new universities are broadly imitating the old colonial models; and there has been little curriculum reform. This study addresses the state of tertiary education in Uganda and proposes reforms in the following areas: university management; how to manage the current two-tier system of public and private universities; institutional capacity; financing and coping with decreasing resources; curricula design which is appropriate to African development needs; how to correct the imbalance of arts/humanities and science students and shortages of academic staff; access to tertiary education; quality of education; and institutional and academic autonomy. The author is Professor of History and Vice-Rector of the Islamic University of Uganda at Mbali. He has published widely on a range of subjects including secondary and tertiary education, Islam in Uganda and social violence.

Os textos constituíntes deste livro tratam de temáticas que examinam partes da realidade goiana pelas quais os autores elegem problemáticas traduzidas como condicionalidades e potencialidades do cerrado brasileiro. A obra compreende resultados de pesquisas num quadro de questões sociais declaradas por aspectos políticos, econômicos e culturais importantes e, por questões ambientais, assentadas na investigação de aspectos ecológicos, geotecnológicos e biológicos, que contribuem para a discussão e reflexão crítico-científicas. Nessa perspectiva, ampliam-se as possibilidades da ética da liberdade científica aliada à responsabilidade ética na discussão das diversidades e adversidades que caracterizam o meio natural e sua constante transformação pela intervenção do homem.

In America today, you can connect to your ethnic heritage in dozens of ways, or adopt an identity just for an evening. Our society is not a melting pot but a salad bar--a bazaar in which the purveyors of goods and services spend close to $2 billion a year marketing the foods, clothing, objects, vacations, and events that help people express their (and others') ethnic identities. This is a huge business, whose target groups are the "hyphenated Americans"--in other words, all of us. As immigrant groups gain economic security, they tend to reinforce--not relinquish--their ethnic identification. Marilyn Halter demonstrates that, to a great extent, they do it by shopping. And their purchasing power is enormous. How has the marketplace responded to this hunger? Instantly and wholeheartedly: tweaking old products and inventing new ones; launching new brands in supermarkets, new music groups, vacation itineraries, language courses, toys, greeting cards, et cetera. This nexus of business and ethnicity is already seen as the hottest consumer development of this decade, and Halter is uniquely qualified to describe its origins, the exponential growth of products and advertising, and the phenomenal sales of items from salsa to Chieftains CDs. She addresses her subject with an abundance of anecdotal evidence, telling examples of ethnic marketing, and interviews with entrepreneurs (many of them immigrants) who are vigorously seizing the opportunities offered by the business of ethnicity. Shopping for Identity is provocative, intriguing, and farseeing, illuminating an important aspect of our contemporary way of life while validating the yearning we all feel for connection to our roots.
