This text aims to create a site between academic scholarship and other forms, modes and genres of writing including essays in imaging, photography and other textual forms. Art is viewed as both presentation and re-presentation of theory: produced in the interface between these two forms of address. It argues that serious art writing is only possible through drawing upon a multiplicity of intellectual models and modes which include critical theory and literature, whilst also testing the limits of their institutional and pedagogical effects. The edges between traditionally separate categories are brought into tension to provide a site where a various views and practices can be realized.

Vol. 1

Winner of the 2020 Manga Taisho Grand Prize! A manga about the struggles and rewards of a life dedicated to art. Popular guy Yatora realizes he's just going through the motions to make other people happy and finds himself in a new passion: painting. But untethering yourself from all your past expectations is dangerous as well as thrilling... Yatora studies hard and gets good grades, and he parties hard, staying out late drinking and watching soccer with his friends. He checks all the boxes he needs to be the perfect high school student. But it all starts to feel empty, and he begins to wonder what part of his life expresses who he is...or even if he has a unique voice at all. Then he wanders into the art room one day, and a lone painting captures his eye, awakening him to a kind of beauty he never knew. Compelled and consumed, he dives in headfirst--and he's about to learn how savage, unforgiving, and exhilarating creating art can be!
