Summer of Night - Wikipedia

Summer Of Night Dan Simmons Dan Simmons' Summer of Night is an engaging and creepy page-turner. The novel follows a small group of friends who are up against a malevolent entity. I enjoyed the characters and the way they came together to battle evil (and save their town). Summer of Night is a satisfying coming of age horror tale. Summer of Night (Seasons of Horror, #1) by Dan Simmons In "Summer of Night," Hyperion author Dan Simmons takes his swing at a "Stephen shipping over $10. Summer of Night book by Dan Simmons - Thriftbooks Summer of Night is obviously Simmons attempting to set up camp in some familiar horror territory. However the book simply doesn't have its own identity while laboring under the shadow of the largest horror of all, Stephen King's 1986 thousand-plus-page It. Sure, Simmons writes without all the junky pop-culture references that can clutter King's style, and actually I started to miss that as Simmons tries for universality and ends up with cliché, goes after profundity but gives us triteness. Too Much Horror Fiction: Summer of Night by Dan Simmons ...A Winter Haunting from Simmons' Summer of Night Series is a thriller set in Illinois. Just before Halloween, Dale returns to Elm Haven to inhabit the home of his childhood friend. This horror masterpiece has readers sitting on the edge of their seat as Dale works back through his childhood and the "accident" which took his friend's young life. Dan Simmons - Book Series In Order Now Deadline reports that Dan Simmons' 1991 book Summer of Night has been picked up for adaptation. The book is in many ways similar to

Stephen King's It in that it deals with a group of children -- five 12-year-old boys and the outcast girl they befriend -- who live in a small town and are tasked one summer with fighting an ancient evil awakening under their now-closed school. Dan Simmons' Summer of Night heading to big screen Anyway, perhaps an odd question, but is there a map of Elm Haven, Illinois? Did

Dan perhaps at least create a rough one during the writing process? I've been rereading Summer of Night for about the 5th time now, and from the very few hints here and there in the text I can almost but not quite picture the layout in my head.
