Open Regionalism And The Asia
Maintaining a diverse and pluralistic Asia-Pacific including China — in other words, a form of “open regionalism” — is necessary to secure the peace and stability of the region. Open regionalism in the Asia-Pacific | The Japan Times "Open regionalism" has been adopted as a fundamental principle of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) 2 organization from its creation in 1989. The 18 nations of APEC account for about one half of world output and world trade. Open

Regionalism Open Regionalism is regional economic co-operation without discrimination against countries outside the region. The concept grew from the experience of rapid growth, and expanding trade and investment across national borders, in East Asia and the Pacific. It became the guiding idea of Asia-Pacific Economic Co-operation. Open
