But there's one tiny problem with fake dating: it looks a lot like real dating. Worse, it feels a lot like real dating. I know once this is over, we'll go our separate ways. No matter the smoldering looks he gives me, the possessive way he touches me, or the dirty things he whispers in my ear, Silas isn't falling for me. That's fine. No matter how good being with him feels, I'm not falling for him, either. One month. That's it.
