Rost takes us into the delightful dimension of creative catechetics, with its powerful impact on children's faith-learning. She first leads us in an exploration of our own creativity, our sense of prayer, and our own sense of discipleship. She then suggests ways to enliven the gathering space, using the children's five senses to help open them to these rich faith experiences. She offers approaches to the critical factors in preparation, presentation and procedure that make for successful empowerment of the child's faith learning. She also includes scores of practical ideas for involving primary and middle-grade children in making prayer, O helping them express their unity with God through prayer. Finally, she discusses the many resources essential to our own spiritual formation, which must go hand-in-hand with that of unfolding a vibrant faith life in children. An excellent resource to inspire, encourage and sensibly guide catechetical ministry as it is meant to be: joy-filled, revitalizing and life-impacting.

"The Sacred Writings Of ..." provides you with the essential works among the Early Christian writings. The volumes cover the beginning of Christianity until before the promulgation of the Nicene Creed at the First Council of Nicaea. This volume is accurately annotated, including * an extensive biography of the author and his life Gregory of Nyssa (c. 335 - c. 395) (also known as Gregory Nyssen) was bishop of Nyssa from 372 to 376, and from 378 until his death. He is venerated as a saint in Roman Catholicism, Eastern Orthodoxy, Oriental Orthodoxy, Lutheranism and Anglicanism. Gregory, his brother Basil of Caesarea and Gregory of Nazianzus are collectively known as the Cappadocian Fathers Gregory lacked the administrative ability of his brother Basil, or the contemporary influence of Gregory of Nazianzus, but was an erudite theologian who made significant contributions to the doctrine of the Trinity and the Nicene creed. Gregory's philosophical writings were influenced by Origen, and he is generally considered to have believed in universal salvation. Since the mid-twentieth century, there has been a significant increase in interest in Gregory's works from the academic community, which has resulted in challenges to many traditional interpretations of his theology. Celebrating the Lectionary® is a supplementary catechetical resource that helps you bring the richness of the Lectionary and the liturgical year into your catechetical program. It can be used in Catholic school programs, during the process of preparing children for Christian initiation, or as a supplement to a traditional basal text for Catholic school or parish religious education programs. It has been changed from a school year annual to now follow the pattern of the Lectionary. It includes sessions for every Sunday of the liturgical year (Advent, Christmas Time, Lent, Easter Time, and Ordinary Time), sessions for each day of the Sacred Paschal Triduum, and sessions for holydays, solemnities, and feasts so that you can use it in a variety of catechetical settings. Each session is easily adapted to your specific needs and time constraints, with sessions designed so that you can lead class discussions and activities with minimal preparation and make use of the resources you have on hand. Each session includes: - Background information for the catechists - Ways to connect the children's lives with the liturgical year - Full text of the day's Gospel reading and an age-appropriate guided reflection - Gospel-related activities - A take-home page for the families to do during the week

How to Beat the Cost of Implementing CBW III How your parish can get CBW III without straining its budget: 1) Two-year interest-free financing option allows you to pay in instalments-No payment for 90 days! Order 50 copies or more of CBW III (any combination of Choir and Pew editions). Upon receipt of the invoice, you have three months to pay only one third (1/3) of the amount billed. Pay the second third on the anniversary date of your invoice (a year later), and the last third the following year. No interest will be charged during this period. (Please note that our offer for a two-year interest-free payment plan does not apply to discounted orders.) or...2) Place your order through your diocese and save up to 20%. When placing bulk orders for their parishes, dioceses get a discount. In the case of CBW III, the discount is 20%. We normally bill and ship the order to the diocese, which is then responsible for redistribution. However, for CBW III we have agreed to bill the diocese and ship to individual parishes, when requested.

The Lord Is Our Light invites you to explore God's hope and presence through a study of the scripture readings for Advent and Christmas. Key Bible readings call us to praise God as we actively wait for the coming of God's redemption and new creation. Through the readings, we hear the call to celebrate the light of God revealed through Jesus Christ. The season of Advent offers opportunities to prepare for God's coming in human form in the baby Jesus and for the approach of God's kingdom with the second coming of Christ. Hope is the focus of Advent worship, study, and prayer. We will discover the light that began in the manger and that continues as we look forward with hope to Christ's return. The Lord Is Our Light is based upon the Revised Common Lectionary scriptures for year B of the church year, a three-year cycle of Bible readings. The study includes commentary and reflection on readings from the Old Testament, the Gospels, and the Epistles. It offers the opportunity to explore these Bible readings in a five-session study. The goal is to help participants understand, appreciate, and engage in meaningful and joyous celebrations of Advent and Christmas and to live each day in God's light through Jesus Christ. The study book includes a leader guide with information about the season of Advent, suggestions for starting and leading small groups, Bible background, and discussion activities

Catechetical Sessions on Christian Morality John Wiley & Sons

Catechetical Sessions on Christian Morality is a rich course that gives young people a solid grounding in the foundations of Christian morality, to add to what they have already received in their faith community and in their family. The manual presents young people with the fundamental concerns of the moral life in a Catholic Christian context. Above all, the course is an invitation to young people to build God's Reign by loving themselves and others as God loves them. In other words, it is an invitation to become holy, healthy, and happy. In doing so, they will bring God and the world together!

Keeping Christ in Christmas Rowman & Littlefield

This beautifully bound volume of sheet music for the popular Christmas album, "Keeping Christ in Christmas" by Cathy Neff is a must have for every Christmas music collection. The cover features Greg Olsen's endearing holiday painting, "Spirit of Christmas." Composer Cathy Neff has put together a Christmas feast with songs that are all centered on Christ. This is Christmas like you've never heard it before! With new arrangements of old favorites, and some soon-to-be new favorites in styles from pop to classical, country to jazz, this album has something for everyone. "Let Him In" is a powerful ballad that reflects on the question: "If the Baby Jesus came today, would you make Him room in your inn?" Piano, vocal, and guitar. "Angels We Have Heard on High" arranged for choir with piano and organ. A must have for your choir, or your family! You don't want to miss "Don't X Out My Christmas!" A rollicking country romp through the Christmas season with only one request: don't remove Christ from my Christmas. Lead sheet with vocals and chords. "O Come Emmanuel-What Child" is a medley of two Christmas favorites: "O Come, O Come Emmanuel" and "What Child Is This?" arranged for a solo instrument and piano or harp. Very versatile arrangement. "Where Was the Rest of the World" is a heartwarming ballad for solo voice and piano and guitar. It begs the question: If the only ones who were aware of the Christ Child's birth were a few shepherds in the fields, where was the rest of the world and why didn't they realize that He had been born? Better yet, where are they today as we celebrate His birth? "Christmastime" is just as cute as it comes. A light, very fun look at everything that is wonderful about Christmas that makes it our favorite time of year, especially the Baby Jesus. "Lullaby, Dear Child" is another touching ballad beautifully arranged as a solo or duet. We tiptoe in to hear Mary, singing the Christ Child to sleep. "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing" is a powerful arrangement of this favorite carol. Contains SATB choir parts and piano accompaniment, with a reduction of the string parts found in the original arrangement. Easily played on an organ or assimilated into the piano part. You might never want to use another arrangement ever again! "When You Wake" is a heart melting lullaby as a parent puts their child to bed on Christmas Eve. All the tenderness of the season rolled into one melody. This will become one of your standards. "Three Ships" is a mixed-meter jazz rendition of "I Saw Three Ships." This is a jazz chart, or lead sheet, with melody, chords and rhythms for jazz players. Have fun with this one! "Christmas Eve" is a thoughtful look at the wisemen's visit and the gifts they brought, and what we could possibly give the Savior this Christmas. This arrangement of "Away in a Manger" utilizes all three of the most popular tunes for this song, one for each verse. Cathy Neff has added a fourth verse that brings the song to present day. A must have edition of this beloved carol. It is Cathy Neff's belief that music is not meant to be a spectator sport. That is why she has made this book available. Grab your guitar, sit around your piano, and sing! After all, it's Christmas!
