Common Responsorial Psalms and Gospel Acclamations
In the fifth week we have John's story of the woman taken in adultery (only found in John's Gospel), and the Acclamation is a beautiful, incredibly appropriate verse from Joel :
'Even now, says the Lord, return to me with your whole heart, for I am gracious and merciful' (there's a UK possible alternative 'Seek good and not evil', but I would choose the Joel verse myself). Lent Gospel Acclamations : an update - Music for MassGIRM (General Instructions of the Roman Missal, the official rule book for liturgy) is very clear on this : 'An acclamation of this kind constitutes a rite or act in itself, by which the gathering of the faithful welcomes and greets the Lord who is about to speak to them in the Gospel and profess their faith by means of the chant. It is sung by everybody, standing, and is led by the choir or a cantor, being repeated as the case requires. Alleluia!
