Free Negro owners of slaves in the United States in 1830 ...
In United States history, a free Negro or free black was the legal status, in the geographic area of the United States, of African Americans who were not slaves. It included both freed slaves and those who had been born free. This term was also in use during the colonial period of the United States, and lasted until the abolition of slavery in the United States in December 1865, which rendered the term unnecessary.
