The Princess Pawn The Princess Pawn is Rowan St George's debut and she nailed it. I was drawn in from the blurb and hooked from start to finish. We get a few POV's which normally I'm not a fan of but I think it was needed with this story. I'm definitely looking forward to more from Rowan St George in the future. ☐☐.

The Princess Pawn: The Castalian Moon Journals #1 by Rowan ...In The Princess Pawn, the traditional fairy tale is turned upside down. This princess doesn't wait to be rescued, nor does she plunge into the fray without a backward glance. And in a world in which queens have all the power, violence is not assumed to be the only solution to conflict.

Computer self-play studies show that a single pawn is enough to compensate the difference between queen and princess on an 8x8 board, and that on 10x8 boards princess plus pawn even has a slight advantage over queen. This implies that the princess is worth approximately eight pawns.
