AQA Poetry Anthology - Power and Conflict: York Notes for GCSE everything

you need to achieve your full potential with York Notes for GCSE Study Guides, now updated for GCSE (9-1).Aqa Gcse Poetry Anthology Conflict and Power - The Student Guide Wainwright's Doodle Quotation Guides help students learn quotations from exam texts. If you're studying the AQA Poetry Anthology for your GCSE exams, this book will help you learn the best quotations and the poetic techniques they contain. The book contains 45 quotations: three accessible, memorable quotations from each poem are provided. Students can colour the doodles in their book, draw their own doodles for quotations they have chosen, annotate the quotations and, most importantly, convert every page into a memorable, shareable flashcard or poster. The drawings are lively and the quotations are accessible, and the whole thing makes an invaluable revision resource. The author is a 40-year old English teacher from the North of England. His cartoon guides to exam texts have been helping his students for years, and now they can help you too. Follow revdoodle on Instagram for a look inside the books, completed examples and tips on how best to use them.

'The Not Dead' is a short collection of poems originally aired on a Channel 4 documentary film of the same name, shown in the winter of 2007. They are featured here alongside an introduction from Armitage and press reviews of the film, which is due for re-screening at the South Bank, London, in November

Alan Bennett selects and comments upon six favorite poets and the pleasures of their works. In this candid, thoroughly engaging book, Alan Bennett creates a unique anthology of works by six well-loved poets. Freely admitting his own youthful bafflement with poetry, Bennett reassures us that the poets and poems in this volume are not only accessible but also highly enjoyable. He then proceeds to prove irresistibly that this is so. Bennett selects more than seventy poems by Thomas Hardy, A. E. Housman, John Betjeman, W. H. Auden, Louis MacNeice, and Philip Larkin. He peppers his discussion of these writers and their verse with anecdotes, shrewd appraisal, and telling biographical detail: Hardy recalls his first wife, Emma, in his poetry, although he treated her shabbily in real life. The fabled Auden was a formidable and off-putting figure at the lectern. Larkin, hoping to subvert snooping biographers, ordered personal papers shredded upon his death. Simultaneously profound and entertaining, Bennett's book is a paean to poetry and its creators, made all the more enjoyable for being told in his own particular voice. its creators, made all the more enjoyable for being told in his own particular voice.

The Guide has been written primarily for students of GCSE English Literature as specified by AQA in the post-2015 syllabus (8702). It addresses the requirement to study one cluster of poems taken from the AQA poetry anthology: Past and Present and the requirement to analyse and compare Unseen Poetry. The Guide covers all the poems in both the "Love and Relationships" and the "Power and Conflict" clusters in the Anthology. The poems are explored individually, and links and connections between them are drawn as appropriate. The format of each exploration is similar: * An explanation of key features of the poem that require contextual knowledge or illustration and the relationship between the text and its context. * A summary of the key themes of the poems, with a note on possible connections and links to other poems in the cluster* A brief summary of the metric form, rhyme scheme or other structural features* A "walk-through" (or explication) of the poem, ensuring that what is happening in the poem is understood, how the rhythm and rhyme contribute to meaning, an explanation of the meaning of words which may be unfamiliar, an exploration of language and imagery and a comment on main themes.
