When Pedro Álvares Cabral sailed west of the doldrums on his way to India, he discovered Brazil. The year was 1500.
Travelling with him on his flagship was one Pero Vaz de Caminha, a Portuguese civil servant on his way to run a business in Calcutta. His famous letter to the King of Portugal, describing in great detail their brief stay on the Brazilian coastline, was the first report sent back to Europe from the Lusitanian New World. It is thus the living testimony of a remarkable moment in a truly remarkable age ... the Age of Discovery.

The Journey to Quantum Gravity CRC Press

A Drucker management classic, first published in 1990, which breaks down any narrow definition of management and is aimed specifically at decision-makers and managers working in non-profit making and charitable organizations to help them apply the principles of good management to their sector. Drawing from the American experience, Drucker poignantly illustrates his discussion of management by quoting his in-depth interviews with top executives from non-profit making organizations. The issues of mission, performance, people and relationships, leadership and developing managers are eloquently discussed and Drucker provides Action Implications throughout the book which are of practical importance to the reader.

How Students Learn: Science in the Classroom builds on the discoveries detailed in the best-selling How People Learn. Now these findings are presented in a way that teachers can use immediately, to revitalize their work in the classroom for even greater effectiveness. Organized for utility, the book explores how the principles of learning can be applied in science at three levels: elementary, middle, and high school. Leading educators explain in detail how they developed successful curricula and teaching approaches, presenting strategies that serve as models for curriculum development and classroom instruction. Their recounting of personal teaching experiences lends strength and warmth to this volume. This book discusses how to build straightforward science experiments into true understanding of scientific principles. It also features illustrated suggestions for classroom activities.

O realismo europeu é o tema central deste ensaio do professor do Departamento de Sociologia da USP, Leopoldo Waizbort. O autor primeiramente situa a obra de Erich Auerbach, o maior crítico-filólogo em língua alemã do século 20, e, em seguida, relaciona sua influência no conjunto da obra do crítico brasileiro Antonio Candido. O diálogo entre os dois, às vezes explícito, às vezes subterrâneo, resulta numa compreensão harmoniosa e mais integrada da obra de Candido, desde a crítica de rodapé dos anos 1940-50 até suas obras-mestras como 'Formação da literatura brasileira' e 'O discurso e a cidade'. Colocando em jogo as relações entre história, gêneros, estilos e linguagens, surge uma concepção ampla de realismo, onde a arte do romance é central para o conhecimento da história e da vida social. Um livro raro, complexo e fecundo, 'A passagem do três ao um' representa um esforço para, de fato, integrar os diferentes campos da cultura. Seccao 2 Brazil

THE MILLION COPY INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER Drawn from 3,000 years of the history of power, this is the definitive guide to help readers achieve for themselves what Queen Elizabeth I, Henry Kissinger, Louis XIV and Machiavelli learnt the hard way. Law 1: Never outshine the master Law 2: Never put too much trust in friends; learn how to use enemies Law 3: Conceal your intentions Law 4: Always say less than necessary. The text is bold and elegant, laid out in black and red throughout and replete with fables and unique word sculptures. The 48 laws are illustrated through the tactics, triumphs and failures of great figures from the past who have wielded - or been victimised by - power.

(From the Playboy interview with Jay-Z, April 2003) PLAYBOY: Rap careers are usually over fast: one or two hits, then styles change and a new guy comes along. Why have you endured while other rappers haven't? JAY-Z: I would say that it's from still being able to relate to people. It's natural to lose yourself when you have success, to start surrounding yourself with fake people. In The 48 Laws of Power, it says the worst thing you can do is build a fortress around yourself. I still got the people who grew up with me, my cousin and my childhood friends. This guy right here (gestures to the studio manager), he's my friend, and he told me that one of my records, Volume Three, was wack. People set higher standards for me, and I love it.

AUTOR VENCEDOR DO PRÊMIO CAMÕES

2014! Neste belo livro de memórias que se lê como um romance, recriam-se quinze anos da vida de um poeta jovem e os ambientes em que passou seus dias, da adolescência no Rio de Janeiro ao fim da mocidade, como diplomata, em Lisboa. Poucas vezes Alberto da Costa e Silva se olha ao espelho. Quase sempre é nos outros que ele se vê. Pois estas são memórias dos outros. É este, assim, um livro de retratos, e não só daqueles que contaram entre suas grandes amizades ou com ele compartilharam as perplexidades, as angústias, as esperanças e as decepções da geração que saiu da infância no fim da Segunda Guerra Mundial. É também de personalidades mais velhas com quem privou ou que conheceu, de Jorge de Lima, Manuel Bandeira e Guimarães Rosa a Juscelino Kubitschek e António de Oliveira Salazar. Este é também um livro de encontros, ou melhor, de viagens com novas paisagens na Europa e na África, do descobrimento por um rapaz sensível e sempre emocionado do prazer de olhar o que em cada momento lhe coube do mundo.
