Kerusakan moral dewasa ini dinilai pada fase yang mencemaskan dikalangan generasi muda. Nilai-nilai karakter mulia mulai mengalami pergeseran di muda dengan mudahnya melakukan perbuatan yang membahayakan jiwa, kehormatan, harga karena hanya ingin sesaat. Perbuatan tabu perbuatan tabu dan malu sebaliknya kehidupan hedonisme dan

masyarakat, bangsa dan negara? Apakah dunia pendidikan kita, di berbagai lembaga pendidikan sekolah telah gagal dalam mendidik karakter peserta didik? Persoalan ini menjadi masalah besar yang harus ditemukan solusinya. Berdasarkan paparan masalah di atas, maka tujuan penulisan buku ini bukan hanya untuk mengingatkan kepada semua pihak, khususnya pihak-pihak yang berkecimpung dalam dunia pendidikan, tentang bahaya moral tersebut, tetapi yang terpenting adalah bagaimana menemukan jalan keluar yang dapat dilakukan untuk memecahkan masalah ini. Pendidikan karakter merupakan salah satu solusi jangka panjang yang harus dilaksanakan. Satu solusi yang harus menjadi perhatian kita semua adalah pendidikan karakter yang dilaksanakan secara sadar, terprogram dengan baik, terencana, dilaksanakan dengan sistemik, dimonitoring, evaluasi dan tindak lanjut di lembaga pendidikan sekolah, Sehingga tujuan implementasi nilai-nilai karakter dapat tercapai sesuai dengan harapan. Sekolah harus dapat dijadikan ladang yang subur untuk menyemai dan menumbuhkan pilar-pilar nilai karakter bagi generasi masa depan. Buku ini berjudul "Implementasi nilai-nilai karakter Pada Mata Pelajaran Pendidikan Agama Islam (PAI) Tingkat Sekolah Menengah Atas (SLTA). Meskipun buku ini disusun untuk kebutuhan pendidikan karakter di SLTA, namu buku ini juga dapat digunakan oleh guru pada Pendidikan Dasar (SD) maupun Sekolah Menengah Pertama (SMP), yang tidak hanya digunakan untuk mata pelajaran Pendidikan Agama Islam (PAI) saja, tetapi lebih dari itu juga diperuntukan pada semua mata pelajaran di sekolah. Selanjutnya buku ini memberikan arahan bagaimana nilai-nilai karakter dapat diimplementasikan ke dalam Silabus (Pedoman Dalam Menyusun Rencana Pelaksanaan Pembelajaran/RPP) dan Rencana Pelaksanaan Pembelajaran (RPP), Materi Pembelajaran, Strategi Dan Metode Pembelajaran, Sumber/Informasi Belajar, Media Pembelajaran, dan Evaluasi Pembelajaran (Authentic Assessment) Subtansi yang terkandung dalam buku ini, paling tidak menyadarkan dan mengajak para pendidik khususnya guru agar dapat membangun karakter mulia peserta didik. Sangat diharapkan kepada pendidik dan para guru tidak hanya berorientasi pada hasil belajar berupa kompetensi kognitif atau pengetahuan yang dimiliki oleh pesera didik saja, tetapi melalui pembelajaran berkarakter ini guru dapat menumbuhkembangkan kompetensi afektif (nilai karakter) dan psikomotorik (berbagai keterampilan sikap) peserta didik Buku ini ditulis dengan tujuan antara lain agar dapat dijadikan rujukan bagi para guru atau bahkan bagi penggiat pendidikan. Oleh sebab itu, buku ini menjelaskan hal-hal yang praktis, mudah dan sederhana dalam praktek pelaksanaan pembelajaran di sekolah. Harapan penulis, mudah-mudahan buku ini bermanfaat bagi para pembaca khusus bagi para pendidik dan guru. practices that teachers can use in their classrooms with deeper inquiry into the concept of intentionality and a thorough integration of standards. This edition highlights current issues and emerging trends in the field of educational psychology. The tenth edition continues to have in-depth, practical coverage with a focus on the intentional teacher by presenting up-to-the-minute research that a reflective, intentional teacher can apply. An "intentional teacher," according to Slavin, is one who constantly reflects on his or her practice and makes instructional decisions based on a clear conception of how these practices affect students. To help readers become "intentional teachers," the author offers a set of questions to guide them and models best practices through classroom examples.

The Beginning of Guidance The Other Press

Twelve hundred years ago a Chinese historian stated that "on the eastern frontier of the land of Japan there is a barrier of great mountains, beyond which is the land of the Hairy Men." These were the Aino, so named from the word in their own language signifying "man." Over most of the country of these rude and helpless indigenes the Japanese have long since spread, only a dwindling remnant of them still inhabiting the island of Yezo. Since the early days when a couple of them were sent as curiosities to the Emperor of China their uncouth looks and habits have made them objects of interest to more civilised nations. Many European writers have described them, but hardly any with such opportunities as Mr. Basil Hall Chamberlain, Professor of Philology at the Tokyo University, who has taken down from the Ainos the present collection of their tales, and prefaced it with an account of their ways and state of mind. It would hardly be for me to offer information on a subject so excellently handled, but the request of the Editor of the Folk-Lore Journal that I would write an Introduction enables me to draw attention to the views put forward by Professor Chamberlain in another publication,[1] which, being printed in Japan, may be overlooked by many English folk-lore students, even of those interested in the curious Aino problem. As is well known, the hairiness of the Ainos marks them sharply off from the smooth-faced Japanese. No one can look at photographs of Ainos without admitting that the often-repeated comparison of them to bearded Russian peasants is much to the purpose. The likeness is much strengthened by the bold quasi-European features of the Ainos contrasting extremely with the Japanese type of face. Of course all this has suggested a theory of the Ainos belonging to the Aryan race; and, although the idea comes to nothing when examined strictly, its existence is an acknowledgment of the special Aino race-type. Mention must also be made of an anatomical peculiarity of the Aino skeleton, consisting of a remarkable flattening of the arm- and leg-bones. On the whole it is evident that the Ainos are an ancient race in this part of Asia, and so far isolated that anthropology has not yet the means of settling their physical connection with other Asiatic tribes. Professor Chamberlain's careful examination of the Aino language leads him to a similar result. It is made not only from his own knowledge, but with the advantage of working with the Rev. John Batchelor, who has lived as a missionary among the Ainos for years, and written the Grammar printed as a part of these Aino Studies. In structure the resemblances which the Aino presents to Japanese are outweighed by the differences; and, though it may ultimately prove to fall into a north-east Asiatic group of languages, this is so far from being made out that it is safest for the present to treat both race and language as isolated. Inasmuch as the little civilisation now possessed by the Ainos has in great measure been learnt from the Japanese, it is natural that their modern language should have picked up numbers of Japanese words, from the name of kamui which they give to their gods, down to the rice-beer or sake in which they seek continual drunkenness, now their main source of enjoyment. One purpose which their language serves is to prove how widely they once spread over the country now Japan, where place-names alone remain to indicate a former Aino population. Some of these are unmistakably Aino, as Yamashiro, which must have meant "land of chestnut trees," and Shikyu, "place of rushes." Others, if interpreted as Japanese, have a far-fetched sense, as, for instance, the villages of Mennai and Tonami, which, if treated as Japanese, would signify "inside permission" and "hares in a vow"; whereas, if taken to be originally Aino they may bear the reasonable sense of "bad stream" and "stream from the lake." The inference from records and local names, worked out with great care by Professor Chamberlain, is "that the Ainos were truly the predecessors of the Japanese all over the Archipelago. The dawn of history shows them to us living far to the south and west of their present haunts; and ever since then, century by century, we see them retreating eastwards and northwards, as steadily as the American Indian has retreated westwards under the pressure of the colonists from Europe."

Pendidikan karakter merupakan salah satu tujuan utama pendidikan di Indonesia. Seiring dengan perkembangan teknologi, kebutuhan serta peluang pemanfaatannya di dunia pendidikan, diperlukan adanya adaptasi dalam pelaksanaan pembelajaran karakter, khususnya dalam pembelajaran daring. Oleh karena itu, dibutuhkan konsep yang jelas agar kegiatan pembelajaran dapat berlangsung secara maksimal. Namun penelitian terdahulu, belum ditemukan adanya model pendidikan karakter melalui pembelajaran daring yang dapat dijadikan acuan. Dengan demikian, penelitian ini bertujuan untuk mengembangkan model konseptual pendidikan karakter melalui pembelajaran daring yang mencakup metode dan strategi yang disesuaikan dengan tujuan pembelajaran dan pokok bahasan, serta sistem sosial, prinsip reaksi, sintaks, bahan dan alat yang dibutuhkan, serta evaluasi. Penelitian ini menggunakan pendekatan deduktif dengan mengkombinasikan Social Cognitive Theory (SCT), Komponen Karakter Lickona (KKL), dan framework TPACK untuk membantu penyusunan model. Penelitian ini merupakan penelitian konseptual dengan tipe model dengan menerapkan multi method qualitative dalam pengumpulan datanya. Teknik pengumpulan data yang digunakan adalah Systematic Literature Review (SLR) dan Focus Group Discussion (FGD). SLR dilakukan dengan cara mencari, menyeleksi, dan mengkaji penelitian-penelitian terdahulu yang relevan, sedangkan FGD dilakukan sebanyak 3 kali (31 Januari 2021 – 14 Februari 2021) yang melibatkan 18 guru Pendidikan Agama Islam & Budi Pekerti atau Diniyah dari berbagai lembaga pendidikan di Provinsi Jawa Barat.

Berdasarkan 123 referensi penelitian yang relevan dan pengumpulan data dari FGD, dilakukan triangulasi data dan ditemukan 45 kegiatan pembelajaran yang dipetakan menjadi metode dan strategi yang dapat diterapkan dalam pembelajaran daring. Penelitian ini menemukan bahwa metode dan strategi pada pendidikan karakter membutuhkan kesesuaian dengan KI/KD mapel PAI & BP SMP berdasarkan karakteristik KKL masing-masing. Implementasi metode dan strategi dalam pembelajaran daring disesuaikan dengan tipe aplikasi utama yang akan digunakan. Sistem pendukung lainnya disesuaikan dengan tipe aplikasi utama, metode dan strategi tersebut. Dalam sintaks pembelajarannya perlu diperhatikan sintaks sosial dan prinsip reaksi yang telah disusun dan ditetapkan oleh sekolah. Integrasi dan operasionalisasi dari prosedur tersebut direpresentasikan dengan model konseptual yang diajukan dalam penelitian ini, serta desain Rencana Pelaksanaan Pembelajaran khusus untuk pembelajaran daring (RPP Daring) yang dilengkapi dengan cara pengisiannya.

There is a need to rethink education studies in these times of change, in terms of literacies and technologies, conflict and environmental concerns, and a need for authoritative texts addressing the key areas within education; sociology, child and infant development, social justice, policy, social welfare and development – and multiculturalism. ICCIRS 2019 Deepublish Buku ini hadir untuk memberikan sebuah temuan ten-tang pendidikan islam multikultural yang ada di sekolah. Indo-nesia disebut sebagai negara multi etnis, agama, bahasa dan budaya sehingga memungkinkan tingkat perpecahannya sang-at tinggi, oleh sebab itu perlu adanya sebuah penguatan tentang keharmonisan yang dibangun sejak dini melalui pendidikan. Lembaga pendidikan sebagai media formal men-jadi peran utama dalam menumbuh-kembangkan nilai-nilai multikultural, ia sebagai penopang karakter anak yang bisa dikembangkan untuk memperkuat karakter bangsa yang dike-mas dalam nilai Bhineka Tunggal Ika. Lembaga pendidikan (sekolah) dalam memperkuat nilai pendidikan islam Multi-kultural bagaikan sebuah mata uang yang memiliki dua sisi, disatu sisi merupakan anugerah dan peluang sebagai sarana belajar toleransi dan menghargai keberagaman, namun disisi lain jika tidak dikelola dengan baik, keberagaman tersebut justru akan menjadi sumber perpecahan dan pemantik terjadinya konflik. Oleh karena itu pembelajaran yang dilaksanakan dalam lembaga pendidikan (sekolah) perlu memberikan pemahaman nilai-nilai multikultural sebagai upaya mendidik peser-ta didik menjadi pribadi yang toleran, menghargai perbedaan dan dapat hidup bersama dalam keberagaman. The Complete English and Arabic Text of Al-Ghazali's Bidayat Al-Hidaya Routledge This new edition of the popular textbook digs into the research behind different aspects of teaching in order to give students an informed understanding of what underpins high quality teaching. The SSR Handbook Pearson As its title clearly implies, "Madinan Society at the Time of the Prophet" (SAAS) is a work that brings out the most important aspects of life in the early Muslim community. Its author, the renowned scholar of sirah and Sunnah studies Professor Akram Diya' al'Umari, has expended a great deal of effort in order to make this book more than just a recitation of the historical record. The result is a breakthrough in historiographical methodology, as Dr. al'Umari has effectively succeeded in combining the strict methodological guidelines used by traditional Muslim scholars of the Sunnah and usul al hadith with modern methods of historical criticism. Volume One of this important new work, subtitled "Its Characteristics and Organization", aims at presenting the reader with an accurate description of the society brought about through the efforts of the Prophet (SAAS) and his Companions, the society viewed by every successive generation of Muslims as the ideal in temporal spiritual values. Volume Two of this important new work, subtitled "The Jihad Against the Mushrikun", deals with the all-important subject of the relations of the struggling new community with the forces that threatened its very existence. Without a doubt, the exemplary behavior of the Prophet (SAAS) and his Companions during the long years that they remained under attack has remained a continued source of inspiration for all Muslims. Its contemporary relevance and significance to the Ummah is a matter that needs no explanation.
