intended as a tribute to, George Orwell's novel Nineteen Eighty-Four. 1985 (Burgess novel) - Wikipedia 1985 by Anthony Burgess at a glance can be seen as an unofficial sequel to George Orwell's Nineteen Eighty-Four, but merely it was just a re-imagining of the novel. Something like, the author thought to himself, "Hey, I'm living in the late 1970s, and I agree with George Orwell about some trends that, if continue, will happen in the next few years." 1985 by Anthony Burgess - Goodreads This novel, first published in 1978, was Anthony Burgess' vision of how Britain might turn out if trade union power remained unchecked.
