Cushions Stargate--Teal'c at the Vagina Monologues The Vagina Monologues MitThe Vagina Monologues debuted at the Institute in 2002, making this the 19th annual production. MIT is proud to be one of a thousand participating colleges and universities staging benefit shows through the V-Day worldwide movement to end violence against women. The MIT Vagina Monologues In February of 2002, I was involved in MIT's production of The Vagina Monologues. In fact, I had one of the more infamous monologues, "My Angry Vagina." Three nights in a row I stood in front of a crowd of 300+ and talked about "dry wads of fucking cotton" (tampons), "cold duck-lips," and what my vagina wanted. MIT's The Vagina Monologues brings together a diverse group of people from the MIT community, with vastly different backgrounds and interests, united under the common goal to stop violence against women.
