Edward the Magnificent, as he liked to call himself, is a cool kid. Well, I don't know about the cool part, but he was a kid, to say the least. Spoiled to no end by his overly protective mother. Always getting his way, ready to burst into some kind of crying episode at any time. Never wanting any photographs made of himself because we all knew what would happen if someone took one. You guessed it! He cried and he cried. How can any one boy do so much crying! We all couldn't figure out how he had so much success building and creating when all he ever did was cry! Whatever the reason for his weird ways and excessive crying, Edward was able to do more stuff in his childhood than most adults five times his age! His love for food would make anyone think he was an obese kid but not Edward, thin as a stick, a stick with no bark to be exact. Edward and Alex were always up to doing good, but not the Yanklesnack bunch. Always into mischief, never really hurting anyone but mischief just the same. All the distant relatives of Edward, like the Yanklesnacks were always on the verge of doing good like Edward but not all the way. All this creative imagination that Edward possesses, who knows where it came from. It could have been his red hair that made it possible, although it could have been those special ears too! Some might guess there was a little something in those pizza freckles of his. No matter where it came from, God had something special for this young boy to say and do. No matter if you have a sense of humor or not, you have to laugh at this young red-headed, freckle-faced, big-eared kid, ready to go on an adventure at a moment's notice. We can all wonder what Edward is up to. All we can say is, "Where are you going next, Edward? Where are you going next?"

Hey there, fellow geeks and game enthusiasts! I'm Seb, your friendly neighborhood nerd, and I'm here to spill the dice (pun intended) on "Splendor." Imagine this: I've just landed in Elk City, Oklahoma, ready to kick off my senior year at Elk City High. Exciting, right? Well, it would be if it weren't for one tiny problem—Brad Thompson, the school's jock extraordinaire and master of all things bully-related. But fear not, my friends, because amidst the chaos of high school, I've found my sanctuary: board games. And guess what's front and center? Splendor, the game of gem trading and strategy that makes my geeky heart sing. Now, onto the main event, or should I say, the other main event? Dylan Lewis, Elk City's very own enigmatic bad boy, with tattoos and a motorcycle that could rival Batman's. Underneath that gruff exterior lies a complicated soul. Our paths cross in the most unexpected ways, and it's like trying to fit a d20 into a Tetris block. Our connection is undeniable, but Dylan's got a reputation to uphold. "Splendor" is like the quest I never knew I was on. It's not just about board games; it's about finding strength, friendship, and, maybe, a little something more. So, gear up, fellow nerds, because this story takes you on a journey through my senior year, where I navigate high school, find my inner hero, and just maybe roll the dice of love.
