Super Bowl LVI is almost here! And whether you're a football fanatic or if you're just in it for the commercials, Super Bowl snacks, and halftime show, a little knowledge about the big game will make the day more fun. Plus, think about how impressed your friends and family will be when you bust out some of these football facts! Or, you can make your own Super Bowl party game and quiz your friends when there's a break in the action. The NFL added an extra game this year, giving us 17 weeks of regular season excitement. The playoff rounds have been particularly action-packed, with several overtime games. We expect the same from the Super Bowl. And while some of the games have been rescheduled and players had to sit out due to Covid-19 protocol, it hasn't been as tumultuous as the 2020 season. We can't wait to see who prevails. Will Joe Burrow and the Bengals bring the first-ever Super Bowl to Cincinnati? Or will Matthew Stafford and the Rams defense come out on top? We won't know until February 13. Until then, we'll be brushing up on these Super Bowl facts.

The birth of the National Football League can be traced to a meeting held in the showroom of a Canton, Ohio, car dealership in September, 1920. From these humble beginnings pro football has grown into a global phenomenon. Today, nearly a century later, fans flock to stadiums across the country, and worldwide television viewership numbers in the hundreds of millions. To celebrate the NFL's 100th season, Roger Gordon describes the evolution of pro football in trivia questions, answers, and anecdotes. Rather than merely posing questions and providing short answers, Gordon gives details behind each—stories that bring to life players, coaches, rivalries, and championships.
