Un secolo di storia d'Italia attraverso l'amore. Un ritratto inedito del potere, scritto da Bruno Vespa in presa diretta e con la consueta, avvincente freschezza.

La Civiltà cattolica Createspace Independent Publishing Platform

They claw at me in my sleep. My constant companions, haunting me at every turn. Their whispers shiver down my neck. Secrets that could destroy my only chance at love. I was born with a curse.

And now ... my curse could lead me to my death. Ronnie has spent her life hiding in plain sight.

Ridiculed as a child, she learned quickly not to trust anyone with the knowledge of her gift. Until one persistent spirit in need of help won't take no for an answer. Embarking on a search for the ghost's brother exposes her to friendship, love ... and a twisted evil. After suffering unimaginable loss, Brad takes a nosedive into the bottom of a bottle. Reckless and out of control, he's at risk of skidding into oblivion. A brush with a stranger inspires him to drag himself out of his hell hole. But the forces that drew them together are also threatening to pull them apart. Dark secrets lay buried, waiting to snuff out their happiness. Will they be able to stop a madman in time, or will he claim his next victim?

In questo libro, costituito da diciotto racconti che spaziano dal genere misterioso e fantastico, nella migliore tradizione di Maupassant e Poe, a quello favolistico o fiabesco, Andersen su tutti, e sapientemente costruito in densi spaccati che affondano le proprie radici nel vissuto della scrittrice e nei luoghi della sua amata Val d'Oise, ritroviamo la sublimazione stessa dell'atto creativo, di quel che dovrebbe essere per noi, oggi, scrivere per i ragazzi.

Le 23 novembre 1964, jour de la promulgation de Lumen Gentium, la constitution dogmatique sur l'Eglise, marque un evenement: c'est la premiere fois dans l'histoire de l'Eglise qu'une assemblee de la Sainte Eglise s'exprime solennellement sur la vie consacree. Le sixieme chapitre de la constitution traite de la signification et de l'essence de la vie religieuse, la reliant au mystere de l'Eglise, peuple de Dieu. Ce texte conciliaire presente la vie religieuse comme un etat canonique, celui du chretien qui tend, dans un institut de perfection, a la charite parfaite et consacre sa vie a Dieu et aux hommes ppar la profession des conseils evangeliques de chastete, pauvrete et obeissance. De toute evidence, cette declaration doctrinale est importante pour l'Eglise et pour le developpement de la vie consacree dans l'Eglise. En lisant Lumen Gentium, on est assez vite frappe par le debut abrupt du sixieme chapitre sur les religieux; car tous les autres chapitres s'ouvrent par une breve introduction. Cependant on ne peut deracher ce chapitre de ce que a ete dit precedemment sur la vocation universelle a la saintete. En fait, l'histoire du texte fait clairement ressortir le lien qui unit ces chapitres.

Nino Rota is one of the most important composers in the history of cinema. Both popular and prolific, he wrote some of the most cherished and memorable of all film music – for The Godfather Parts I and II, The Leopard, the Zeffirelli Shakespeares, nearly all of Fellini and for more than 140 popular Italian movies. Yet his music does not quite work in the way that we have come to assume music in film works: it does not seek to draw us in and identify, nor to overwhelm and excite us. In itself, in its pretty but reticent melodies, its at once comic and touching rhythms, and in its relation to what's on screen, Rota's music is close and affectionate towards characters and events but still restrained, not detached but ironically attached. In this major new study of Rota's film career, Richard Dyer gives a detailed account of Rota's aesthetic, suggesting it offers a new approach to how we understand both film music and feeling and film more broadly. He also provides a first full account in English of Rota's life and work, linking it to notions of plagiarism and pastiche, genre and convention, irony and narrative. Rota's practice is related to some of the major ways music is used in film, including the motif, musical reference, underscoring and the difference between diegetic and non-diegetic music, revealing how Rota both conforms to and undermines standard conceptions. In addition, Dyer considers the issue of gay cultural production, Rota's favourite genre, comedy, and his productive collaboration with the director Federico Fellini.

Today there are many excellent "introduction to Orthodoxy" books available for the inquirer and the catechumen-books on the faith, and those which narrate the long journey to the faith. Such writings have proven to be very helpful to those seeking the "pearl of great price." There are also many books and essays, both ancient and recent, that teach the newly-illuminated how to live, worship, pray, read the Holy Scriptures, and love God above all things. However, there are few modern books, and this thankfully is one of them, that tell of the potential struggles, misunderstandings, temptations, and fears which a person might encounter in his or her first five years of being in the Church. Meeting Christ at first enlightens the darkness, and reveals that which is hidden in the heart, the soul, the conscience and the mind of a person; this can bring the sinner to his knees in sorrow at the wounds that have been inflicted on others and on himself. But that initial meeting and change of life is again only the initial stage of repentance. Metropolitan Kallistos, in describing repentance in his essay, The Orthodox Experience of Repentance, quotes St. Theophan the Recluse: "Repentance is the starting point and foundation stone of our new life in Christ; and it must be present not only at the beginning, but throughout our growth in this life, increasing as we advance." How very useful, then, is Veronica Hughes's book, which describes how she learned what is truly involved in repentance, a purifying path where one will frequently encounter at least three hurdles: uncertainty, sorrow and even suffering. First uncertainty inevitably arises from the struggle to place one's trust fully in Jesus Christ. Veronica's book recounts many significant hurdles faced by the modern man and woman coming to an unalloyed faith. Veronica's story recounts how her physical disabilities and suffering brought her out of her deep initial involvement with new age spirituality. The attentive reader will see how easily one can be caught up by the spirit of the age and be deluded about who God is, and this delusion leads one to a false and fatal understanding about human nature and destiny. Yet the ancient, holy, diagnosis applies: we are invited to put off the "old nature which belongs to [our] former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful lusts" (Eph. 4:22) and be "renewed in the spirit of [our] minds, and put on the new nature, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness" (Eph. 4:24). The Holy Spirit renews our identity and prepares it for Paradise, beyond anything we can imagine. In addition to these fundamental aspects of how God guides our repentance, Veronica also describes another aspect of Church life that challenges the no-longer-neophyte Orthodox man or woman today. Orthodox worship can be so beautiful and heavenly, but to the modern person who desires to know what is happening and what it means, it can be initially very confusing. Learning how to be in the presence of God-without having to figure it all out-is not easy. Veronica's remarks are wise and helpful in this area. All the while, the author's spiritual journey was guided and aided by her pastor and the congregation of her parish, as well as the good advice of her husband. Not all people are so blessed to find such wholesome and loving guidance. Veronica had her own particular struggles-others will have a different path; that path may be no less thorny, but may it be filled with wonder and gratitude for the presence of God-Who sends His grace so abundantly to those who love Him. "In patience possess ye your souls" (Luke 21:19). (Taken from the Introduction to, "In Christ I am a New Creation, Taking up my Cross" written by Archpriest Lawrence Margitich.)

In the second book in the New York Times bestselling mystery series, Veronica Mars is back with a case that will expose the hidden workings of one of Neptune's most murderous locations. The Neptune Grand has always been the seaside town's ritziest hotel, despite the shady dealings and high-profile scandals that seem to follow its elite guests. When a woman claims that she was brutally assaulted in one of its rooms and left for dead by a staff member, the owners know that they have a potential powder keg on their hands. They turn to Veronica to disprove—or prove—the woman's story. The case is a complicated mix of hard facts, mysterious occurrences, and uncooperative witnesses. The hotel refuses to turn over its reservation list and the victim won't divulge who she was meeting that night. Add in the facts that the attack happened months ago, the victim's memory is fuzzy, and there are holes in the hotel's surveillance system, and Veronica has a convoluted mess on her hands. As she works to fill in the missing pieces, it becomes clear that someone is lying—but who? And why?

Oggi le persone si stimano e si rispettano in base al loro grado di utilità materiale da rendere agli altri e non, invece, al loro valore intrinseco ed estrinseco intellettuale. Per questo gli inutili sono emarginati o ignorati. Se si è omologati (uguali) o conformati (simili) e si sta sempre dietro alla massa, non si sarà mai primi nella vita, perché ci sarà sempre il più furbo o il più fortunato a precederti. Rappresentare con verità storica, anche scomoda ai potenti di turno, la realtà contemporanea, rapportandola al passato e proiettandola al futuro. Per non reiterare vecchi errori. Perché la massa dimentica o non conosce. Denuncio i difetti e caldeggio i pregi italici. Perché non abbiamo orgoglio e dignità per migliorarci e perché non sappiamo apprezzare, tutelare e promuovere quello che abbiamo ereditato dai nostri avi. Insomma, siamo bravi a farci del male e qualcuno deve pur essere diverso!

In 1578, a fourteen-foot linen sheet bearing the faint bloodstained imprint of a human corpse was presented to tens of thousands of worshippers in Turin, Italy, as one of the original shrouds used to prepare Jesus Christ's body for entombment. From that year into the next century, the Shroud of Turin emerged as Christianity's preeminent religious artifact. In an unprecedented new look, Andrew R. Casper sheds new light on one of the world's most famous and controversial religious objects. Since the early twentieth century, scores of scientists and forensic investigators have attributed the Shroud's mysterious images to painterly, natural, or even supernatural forces. Casper, however, shows that this modern opposition of artifice and authenticity does not align with the cloth's historical conception as an object of religious devotion. Examining the period of the Shroud's most enthusiastic following, from the late 1500s through the 1600s, he reveals how it came to be considered an artful relic—a divine painting attributed to God's artistry that contains traces of Christ's body. Through probing analyses of materials created to perpetuate the Shroud's cult following—including devotional, historical, and theological treatises as well as printed and painted reproductions—Casper uncovers historicized connections to late Renaissance and Baroque artistic cultures that frame an understanding of the Shroud's bloodied corporeal impressions as an alloy of material authenticity and divine artifice. This groundbreaking book introduces rich, new material about the Shroud's emergence as a sacred artifact. It will appeal to art historians specializing in religious and material studies, historians of religion, and to general readers interested in the Shroud of Turin.

You can take the dead girl out of the country... Veronica Fischer, small-town bloodsucking madam, is an orphan or at least she finally feels that way. Jules, the one who made her, is gone and cleaning up after him isn't something she ever thought she'd have to do. While her hometown seems to be turning against her, she's forced to set off for the bright lights of the big city with a carload of her dysfunctional supernatural family, hoping not to have to face the Dragon of Chicago. Now she has to rescue a sister she didn't know she had, keep Rachel-her adopted 8-year-old ghost-safe, and try to keep Pekin from unraveling under the onset of the coming storm. Sex, violence, and cryptic undead prophecy-all for fun and profit.

Il MISTERO DEL BOSCO DI RICHEBOURG (E ALTRE STORIE) BRILL

A man patiently watches a group of young girls walk home from school, waiting for the perfect moment to take the one child he has designated as his next victim. However, what this predator does not know is that he, too, is being stalked. There is someone in the shadows—a trained Citizen—who is ready to make sure that the child under his assigned protection is never harmed. One pedophile, one abuser, one killer at a time; this Citizen and others like him will take a stand against those who prey on the weak and the innocent.

Le donne del vangelo Glencoe/McGraw-Hill

1984. Susana è una giovane ornitologa e abita nel faro che domina l'Isola dei Gabbiani, nelle fredde acque del Mar Cantabrico. Ha deciso di trasferirsi in un quel luogo remoto e selvaggio per studiare da vicino il comportamento di una particolare specie di gabbiani. Ma una serie di incidenti iniziano a minacciare la sua incolumità, finché una notte... Vent'anni dopo, Laura e Jacobo, entrambi poliziotti, trascorrono la loro luna di miele sull'isola, dove è appena stato aperto un hotel di lusso. Tra gli ospiti, però, aleggia una strana atmosfera: nessuno sembra essere arrivato lì per caso e presto l'ombra del sospetto si insinua tra i presenti rendendoli agitati e nervosi... specialmente quando il cadavere di uno di loro viene ritrovato tra gli scogli. Mentre infuria una violenta tempesta che rende impossibili le comunicazioni con la terraferma, Laura e il marito danno immediatamente inizio alle indagini. Intanto gli omicidi si susseguono a ritmo serrato secondo un macabro copione: l'assassino sembra imitare le atroci morti dei protagonisti di un libro emerso dal passato. Nessuno è al sicuro, nessuno sa davvero chi ha accanto, nessuno può restare da solo. Ma una cosa con il trascorrere dei giorni diventerà chiara a tutti: l'Isola dei Gabbiani nasconde un oscuro segreto che preme per venire alla luce.

Vita della venerabile serva di dio suor Veronica Giuliani cappuccina ... Andrea Corsini ... dal padre Fr. Gio. Giacomo Romano,... Rontor Presents

Through the act of loving yourself, you give the gift of the truth of you to this world. The most powerful way you can be in the world is by loving yourself well and then living your life from that place. The question is: how do you do that? How do you love yourself when faced with overwhelming responsibilities, guilt, and feeling like the world is stacked against you? You love yourself well when you make the choice for consciousness. Consciousness changes the way you view yourself and the way you view your life. Change is rarely easy; yet staying the same offers no relief from suffering. The choice for consciousness is challenging, but familiar suffering is painful—and it's a pain with no end in sight. This book provides step-by-step support to help you release victim mentality; drop baggage and unhealthy habits; and discard fear-based living. It will show you how to live as the creator of your life. This volume contains 16 tools and 137 definitions of terms and concepts to support your journey. The tools can be used in any order and are very powerful when combined with each other. The fear of change and the habit of staying small collaborate to say, "No, no, no, don't you dare change because that could be dangerous. Who knows what will happen if you change?" That's the moment when you have to take the risk of allowing yourself to walk the truth of you in the world. When you hear the voice that says, "No, no, no, I can't be that big. I can't shine my light that much. I can't emanate the truth of me to these people," that's the point when you need to say instead, "I want healing above all else. I want healing above all else. My desire for healing is stronger than my fear of what will happen if I shine my light, than my fear of how my truth will be received. My desire for healing is stronger than that. Emanation of the truth of me comes first." The Choice for Consciousness, Tools for Conscious Living series offers channeled messages from Eloheim and The Council. The Council is comprised of seven different groups: The Guardians, The Girls, The Visionaries, The Matriarch, The Eloheim, The Warrior, and Fred. During a channeling session, each of The Council members take turns sharing their teachings. Each Council member has a distinct personality, style of delivery, and focus. The Council is best known for their multitude of practical tools, which support the journey out of fear-based living into the consciousness-based operating system. The Choice for Consciousness, Tools for Conscious Living series is designed to offer step-by-step tools to support your movement out of the fear-based operating system into the consciousness-based operating system; to help you let go of baggage, static, and unhealthy habits; and to show you how to discard victim mentality, so that you can live fully as the creator of your life. Volume One of the series contained twenty-two tools that concentrated on the realization that you create your reality. This volume contains sixteen tools created to help you begin to LIVE as a creator. The tools can be used in any order and are very powerful when combined with each other. This book is not a narrative, but a reference text we hope you will return to again and again.

“Cent’anni fa, sulle orme dei suoi avi, Feliciano Danti si mosse dalla sua terra, deciso a costruire qualcosa di mai visto prima: un impero economico ebbe vita, così, nel borgo longobardo ai piedi del Monte Majella, dove Feliciano mise radici. Tra spuntoni di roccia e rada vegetazione, tra il fiume e la strada brecciata, una mulattiera all’epoca, egli edificò una casa enorme, tutta bianca pietra della Majella e con finestre di rossi mattoni, che si aprivano come bocche spalancate di un’orda di giganti ad affacciare e poi inghiottire gente, merci, sacchi vuoti ed anche urla, grida, sguardi, ammiccamenti, parole sussurrate e tutto ciò che c’è, ma non si può toccare.” Scrittrice abruzzese con tre lauree e qualche dubbio sulla sua biografia (!), ama dipingere (“Premio Speciale della Giuria”
