In the Midst of Spiritual Warfare: Fighting the Good Fight of Faith for your Family, Minister Sherrri Lovelace teaches readers faith fundamentals and rules of engagement that she believes are the keys to accomplishing successful warfare on behalf of God. In addition to learning how to maintain the faith that Christians already hold, Lovelace also shares her personal strategies and tactics for remaining faithful and encouraged through the stories of her own spiritual warfare for her father, husband and son. Lovelace encourages readers to stand firm and grounded in the belief that with God, all things are possible. In the Midst of Spiritual Warfare strengthens readers in the knowledge that as long as their actions and words are grounded in the word of God, then only with faith and patience will they obtain victory in the fight for their loved ones. The book is meant to be a truth sharing guide in how to fight the Good Fight of Faith that scripture speaks of, with expert-level knowledge. In order to teach the so-called Negro (Israelites & Christians) people, scattered throughout the four corners of the earth, their slavery to the real-time Matrix can end when they learn to love one another with the love of Yah God of Israel. From my own personal awakening to the final battlefield, when our Master Yahoshua enters in, to war for us and those who blessed us amongst the Gentiles. This is to be read of those who will study to show themselves approved and follow the Holy (Set-Apart) Spirit!

The Battle May Not Have Been Your Choice, But the Outcome Can Be! You may not have chosen sickness, poverty, depression, or whatever your current battle may be, but you have all the power and authority you need to choose how the battle is going to end! In this powerful teaching, Jesse Duplantis will show you how to overcome lifes battles by focusing on the finished work of Jesus Christ. Youll discover the peace of God as you learn to cast your cares on Him and move the battle from the flesh realm to the spirit realm. As Jesse says, Faith is based in Gods power, not your power. Learn how to fight for faith, instead of against faith, and consistently use the Word of God in times of trouble. Learn how to win at the battle of life.

Are we going to let the Lord have all the territory of our being in every way? It is not so easy as saying, "Yes!" It becomes a daily challenge (the fight). We never know how difficult it is to let the Lord have His way until He lights upon some pet opinion of our self-life. But that is the issue. When the Lord has gained His full way in all His own, as He will at the end, the manifestation of the sons of God will take place, and the whole problem will have been solved, the problem of this universe. What is the faith? The faith is this, that Jesus is the Son of God. But that is something more than a personal, objective relationship. That is a spiritual reality which has to come into expression through Him in the Church, in His members as representing the heavenly seed, coming to the fullness of Christ; which being accomplished, is to supplant and oust all this other seed which Satan has introduced into God's universe. That is the faith. The faith comes down to this, namely, what we are spiritually in God's universe. That is the faith. Oh, the conflict is there, and the fight of the faith comes right in amongst Paul and Peter in principle. That is a terrible thing. The fight of the faith! Oh, you would never find Paul and Peter fighting one another over the deity of Christ. You would never find them in conflict over any of these fundamentals of Christianity; the inspiration of the Scriptures, the Person of the Lord Jesus, the coming again. Oh no. You would find them absolutely one on all those matters, however many they were. But here, strangely, we find Peter and Paul in conflict, one having to withstand the other to the face, and it is the faith which is involved.

Once baptized, the Christian has a serious and continuous fight on his hands against the world, the flesh, and the Devil. Each of these opponents represents a formidable obstacle to true spiritual growth and overcoming. If personified, they would be strong and crafty enemies determined to bar us from the Kingdom of God by either derailing or stopping entirely any growth in our relationship with God. The most formidable and ever-present obstacle hindering progress toward the Kingdom of God is the flesh; human nature, that remains following baptism. It is the major component of the cross we must bear while following Christ (Matthew 16:24; Luke 9:23). In Romans 8:7, Paul plainly states, "The carnal mind is enmity against God, for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be." It is always with us, yet we must fight it to overcome its constant drag on progress toward conforming to the image of Jesus Christ. Paul describes in vivid terms the attitude in which we must fight it. He tells us that the flesh must be "crucified" and "put to death." Our attitude is to be like that of a soldier under orders to take no prisoners. Did not God order the Israelites to do similarly when invading the Promised Land? They were to rid it completely of its original inhabitants, a command that they, of course, did not obey. Just as God predicted, as the Israelites became comfortable living among the land's original inhabitants, they became attracted to their gods and practices, snares that drew them into sin. We will examine Israel's responsibility to God as the people left Mount Sinai after agreeing to the Old Covenant and subsequent happenings as they proceeded through the wilderness. Their patterns and examples support the idea that God's way of life under the New Covenant involves the struggles of which Paul wrote.

Fighting the good fight of faith is not merely just one standing inside a physical boxing rink, or walking through a physical life facing the challenges day-to-day. Rather, it must be the willingness to embrace and tap into one's physical, spiritual, mental, and emotional elements - which affect those aspects of one's self. This book narrates my life story of what it means to experience a life that comes with various kinds of unexpected blows of life. Fighting the good fight of faith was written with those in mind that may be experiencing the same or similar atrocity, as I did, in the past.

Nonetheless, Fighting The Good Fight of Faith offers encouraging, inspiring, and spirit-filled insight into what it means to fight the good fight of faith for just about anyone irrespective of one's background. Jahzeal shares his life's experiences and wisdom gained which took him from unimaginable experiences, lows, and hardships in this book. He has demonstrated through faith, how he rose and continues to rise from the ashes of despair, regained power, and now living in his God-given purpose. Also, as a social media personality, Jahzeal uses his time to share the good news of the gospel of the Kingdom of God, on various Social Media platforms. He is also a philanthropist, international Evangelist, and dynamic motivational speaker who has impacted the lives of many people, by the grace and utterance of God.

Fight the Good fight can encourage us. It can inspire us or even move us into action. But without its proper context, this phrase from 1 Timothy will leave our faith running a race with no finish line. How do we move past the doubt and struggles of faith towards a full blown engaged relationship with Christ?

Jesus said we could do big things if we only had faith the size of a mustard seed. A pile of dirt can be moved with one pass of a dozer. The same pile can be moved with a shovel . . . it just takes longer. Jesus faith was like a dozer ours more like a shovel. Too often we give up on the things we pray for because they dont happen quickly. You can have miraculous faith, just as Jesus said . . . if youre willing to take it one shovel at a time. There is also personal faith. God has told us that he loves us for example. Satan tells us that he doesnt that its conditional. It can be believable at times. God is pleased when we can hold to what he told us. It is a process. I call it, The Fight of Faith.

The Way of Spiritual Warfare

Many of God's soldiers are overwhelmed with daily struggles. We feel we are getting nowhere and see no light at the end of the tunnel. We are worn out from the never-ending warfare. We want life easier and are beginning to wonder if we can continue to fight the good fight of faith. Fatigue has enticed us to seek the distractions in this world. We are living in the now instead of focusing upon our future inheritance. Eternity is no longer our top priority. We have forgotten that this life is a vapor that will fade away, whereas eternity is forever. It is imperative for us to realign our focus upon eternity and what is necessary to finish our race. Inheriting all things is contingent upon overcoming. If we are to fight the good fight of faith and run the race set before us with patience, we have to take authority, be the aggressor, be the strong force over the enemy of our souls. As you read through the pages, allow the Holy Spirit to open your eyes of enlightenment, to encourage you to continue, to reveal aggressive warfare and how to run your race with resolute endurance until the finish!
