 The Minor Prophets were the courageous and true spokesmen for God during the time of the great Assyrian, Babylonian, and Persian empires. Joel's prophecy appears to be the first of all the books of prophecy, and Malachi the last. They are called Minor Prophets because they are shorter in length than the Major Prophets. However, their writings are no less important. We will look at the prophets in their chronological order. Joel, Jonah, Amos, Hosea, and Micah prophesied during the Divided Kingdom. Nahum, Zephaniah, Habakkuk, and Obadiah were prophets in Judah before the Babylonian Exile. Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi prophesied after the return to Jerusalem from the exile. Jonah of Israel and Nahum of Judah prophesied against the city of Nineveh in Assyria. "Before the time of Christ these twelve books were joined together to make one scroll known collectively as "The Twelve."

The Last Legend Henry Holt and Company (BYR)

Zeus has punished his son Apollo--god of the sun, music, archery, poetry, and more--by casting him down to earth in the form of a gawky, acne-covered sixteen-year-old mortal named Lester. The only way Apollo can reclaim his rightful place on Mount Olympus is by restoring several Oracles that have gone dark. What is affecting the Oracles, and how can Apollo/Lester do anything about them without his powers? After experiencing a series of dangerous--and frankly, humiliating--trials at Camp Half-Blood, Lester must now leave the relative safety of the demigod training ground and embark on a hair-raising journey across North America. Somewhere in the American Midwest, he and his companions must find the most dangerous Oracle from ancient times: a haunted cave that may hold answers for Apollo in his quest to become a god again--if it doesn't kill him or drive him insane first. Standing in Apollo's way is the second member of the evil Triumvirate, a Roman emperor whose love of bloodshed and spectacle makes even Nero look tame. To survive the encounter, Apollo will need the help of son of Hephaestus Leo Valdez, the now-mortal sorceress Calypso, the bronze dragon Festus, and other unexpected allies--some familiar, some new--from the world of demigods. Come along for what promises to be a harrowing, hilarious, and haiku-filled ride. . . . Includes the first chapter of The Trials of Apollo Book 3: THE BURNING MAZE, plus the first chapters of two Rick Riordan Presents novels: THE STORM RUNNER by J. C. Cervantes, based on Mayan mythology, and DRAGON PEARL by Yoon Ha Lee, a space opera with elements of Korean mythology.

 The prayers of 6-year old Amy to her very best friend, God. God really is Amy's best friend and she treats Him that way. She brings Him a cupcake for his birthday, helps Him out with His problems, asks to become His assistant, and even takes objection to the creation. Why is fun so important? Because it is an avenue to God that is so very, very natural to small children. It gives small children (age 3-6) spirituality with a smile, a great big smile through the practice of nighttime prayer. "Amy's Best Friend, Prayers of a Child" comprises a personal introduction from Amy followed by 14 illustrated prayers, and finally special pages to record a child's own prayers. The book is non-denominational. "Amy's Best Friend" is accompanied by two fun books to support your child's practice of prayer. First, there is a coloring book giving your child hours of fun coloring in the same prayers you have read to him/her. Second, after all the pages at the end of "Amy's Best Friend, Prayers Of A Child" have been filled with your child's own prayers, a prayer journal is available under the name "Amy's Best Friend, Prayers of A Child: My Prayers."
