BollySwar is a decade-wise compendium of information about the music of Hindi films. Volume 8 chronicles the Hindi film music of the decade between 2001 and 2010. This volume catalogues more than 1000 films and 8000 songs, involving more than 2000 music directors, lyricists and singers. An overview of the decade highlights the key artists of the decade - music directors, lyricists and singers - and discusses the emerging trends in Hindi film music. A yearly review provides listings of the year's top artists and songs and describes the key milestones of the year in Hindi film music. The bulk of the book provides the song listing of every Hindi film album released in the decade. Basic information about each film's cast and crew is provided and detailed music credits are provided. Where available, music credits go beyond information regarding music directors, lyricists and singers, and include the names of session musicians, assistants, programmers, arrangers, mixers, recordists, etc. Where applicable, music related awards are listed. Interesting trivia is listed for most films, more than 1500 in all. This includes information about artist debuts, plagiarised or sampled songs, controversies and stories behind the making of the film and its music. This book is primarily meant as a quick reference for people looking for information related to a Hindi film or a song, but readers can also browse through the book to get an overview of the events that shaped Bollywood music in the decade. Given that Hindi films are a reflection of the Indian society, the reader can also glean insights about the country's socio-political and cultural environment from the book.

Bollywood Sounds focuses on the songs of Indian films in their historical, social, commercial, and cinematic contexts. Author Jayson Beaster-Jones takes readers through the highly collaborative compositional process, highlighting the contributions of film directors, music directors (composers), lyricists, musicians, and singers in song production. Through close musical and multimedia analysis of more than twenty landmark compositions, Bollywood Sounds illustrates how the producers of Indian film songs have long mediated a variety of musical styles, instruments, and performance practices to create a uniquely cosmopolitan music genre. As an exploration of the music of seventy years of Hindi films, Bollywood Sounds provides long-term historical insights into film songs and their musical and cinematic conventions in ways that will appeal both to scholars and to newcomers to Indian cinema.

Abbey and Money Singh are better known as The Modern Singhs, Kiwi social media celebrities with a rich and tangled love story to tell. Shared through the eyes of this inspiring duo, The Modern Singhs reveals their experiences as migrants to New Zealand as they struggled to find footing in new surroundings. They describe how they met and pursued a relationship that was forbidden by Money's culture, where he felt he had to choose between his family and the love of his life. The couple opens up about the difficult birth of their son, their journeys with mental health, a complicated sense of home, and what it's like to raise bilingual children across three cultures. The rest is history - or at least uploaded to YouTube, where Abbey and Money's joyful outlook and celebration of tradition unites 1.3 million viewers from all over the world, encouraging others to embrace difference with open hearts.

Now in paperback. The bestselling author of The Willpower Instinct introduces a surprising science-based book that doesn't tell us why we should exercise but instead shows us how to fall in love with movement. Exercise is health-enhancing and life-extending, yet many of us feel it's a chore. But, as Kelly McGonigal reveals, it doesn't have to be. Movement can and should be a source of joy. Through her trademark blend of science and storytelling, McGonigal draws on insights from neuroscience, psychology, anthropology, and evolutionary biology, as well as memoirs, ethnographies, and philosophers. She shows how movement is intertwined with some of the most basic human joys, including self-expression, social connection, and mastery--and why it is a powerful antidote to the modern epidemics of depression, anxiety, and loneliness. McGonigal tells the stories of people who have found fulfillment and belonging through running, walking, dancing, swimming, weightlifting, and more, with examples that span the globe, from Tanzania, where one of the last hunter-gatherer tribes on the planet live, to a dance class at Juilliard for people with Parkinson's disease, to the streets of London, where volunteers combine fitness and community service, to races in the remote wilderness, where athletes push the limits of what a human can endure. Along the way, McGonigal paints a portrait of human nature that highlights our capacity for hope, cooperation, and self-transcendence. The result is a revolutionary narrative that goes beyond familiar arguments in favor of exercise, to illustrate why movement is integral to both our happiness and our humanity. Readers will learn what they can do in their own lives and communities to harness the power of movement to create happiness, meaning, and connection.

'Wheels Under Our Feet' is the story of three restless young people who junk the society's syllabus for finding love and decide to follow their heart. Ishaan, a popular college going boy, wants nothing but just a love in his life. The rest he's going to figure out along the way. Anvita, a quintessential girl next door, has been around the block a few times and knows the scene and all. Sana, who's dying to break open her bars and fly, knows what's right for her, but a little experimenting never hurt anybody, did it? When their lives crisscross, their beliefs get challenged and their love gets tested. We all want it all..the love, the attraction, the relationship, the commitment. But when we get it, it may not be in the way we recognize.

Senior journalist, writer, and filmmaker Maann Singh Deep is a popular name in cinema and journalism as well. By joining the film industry, besides making successful films such as 'Gunahgaar', 'Jurmana', 'Raja Bhaiya', 'Krishnavatar', 'Karantikshetra' and 'Gahri Chaal', he also produced a TV Serial "Ashiyaana", aired on Doordarshan National Channel, which was a very popular serial of that time. In the early years of life, the writer started his career as a journalist and in addition to the Times of India, Hindustan Times and Anand Bazar Patrika Group, he wrote regular stories and poems in hundreds of other journals of India's other publishing house. He continued the amazing love associated with writing, despite being a writer-producer. Written in the same period, the writer's 4 main novels are 'Ret Ka Mahal', 'Phir Lautati Zindagi', 'Sapno ki Talaash' and 'Meri Tutu'. Leading towards continuous writing, Maan Singh Deep, has given unique contribution to literature. The film world is called a dream world. The common perception of people living in this world is that most people in the film world live their lives by masking their faces, like as they have come from another world. There are very few people who are related to reality, they neither do any show-off nor they deceive anyone, but most of the people have put a mask on their face. This book is a memorandum of the author of "Bollywood Secrets". Whatever has happened, the author has presented it very honestly in this book. After reading this book, readers will have an opportunity to learn a lot about the people of the film world and to understand many other things. This book contains such an interesting memoir that you have never read in any of the film journals.
